Childhood.

Happy childhood, merry childhood,
Sunny morn of life's short day,
Why so quickly dost thou leave us?
Why so soon do shadows stray?
Passing in 'twixt us and gladness,
Darkening our way.

Happy childhood, merry childhood,
Free from sorrow, sin and blight;
Careless, joyous, thoughtless moments,
Why so quickly take your flight?
Why break the spell ere noon arrives,
And bid us look for night?

Happy childhood, merry childhood,
Trusting, innocent and brave;
Why should all thy loving kindness
Find within our hearts a grave?
In after years of care and toil
Thy faith we sadly crave.

MUSCULAR STRENGTH.—The muscular strength of the human body is wonderful. A Turkish porter will trot at a rapid pace, and carry a weight of six hundred pounds. Milo, a celebrated athlete of Crete, in Italy, accustomed himself to carrying the greatest burdens, and by degrees became a monster in strength. It is said that he carried on his shoulder an ox, four years old, and weighing upwards of one thousand pounds, and afterwards killed him with one blow of his fist. He was seven times crowned at the Pythian games, and six at the Olympic. He presented himself the seventh time, but no one had the courage to enter the list against him. He was one of the disciples of Pythagoras, and to his uncommon strength that preceptor and his pupils owed their lives. The pillar which supported the roof of the house suddenly gave way, but Milo supported the roof of the building, and gave the philosopher time to escape. In old age he attempted to pull up a tree by the roots and break it. He partially effected it, but his strength being exhausted, the tree where cleft re-united, and he left his hand pinched in the body of it. He was then alone, and, unable to disengage himself, died in that position. Haller mentions that he saw a man, whose finger caught in a chain at the bottom of the mine, and by keeping it forcibly bent, supported, by that means, the whole weight of his body—one hundred and fifty pounds—until he was drawn up to the surface, a distance of six hundred feet. Augustus II., King of Poland, could roll up a silver plate like a sheet of paper, and twist the strongest horse-shoe into a ring. A lion is said to have left the impression of his teeth upon a piece of solid iron. The most prodigious power of mason is exhibited by the fish. The whale moves with a velocity, through a dense medium, water, that would carry him around the world in less than a fortnight. A sword-fish has been known to strike his weapon through the thick plank of a ship; a specimen of such a plank, with the sword of the fish sticking in it, may be seen in the British Museum.

SENSATION AMONG LADIES.—While a fashionable conversation was being held in the Musical Hall of Newcastle, England, recently, a malicious wag called one of the most extensive ladies aside, and told her, as a profound secret, that a celebrated electrician had placed a powerful magnet in each of the six beautiful chandeliers, which would cause the steel spring skirt of any lady passing near them to be inverted by the power of attraction! As any one might conclude, this profound secret was soon known to every lady in the room, and produced a great sensation among the wearers of steel-ribbed garments. During the whole evening, not one could be induced to venture near the brilliant light, and several timid ones departed for their homes instantaneously. When the hoax was proved to be such, the storm of indignation was worthy of womanly lungs, and had the wag been within reach, he would have paid dearly for his amusement.

LIVING LINKS OF DISTANT AGES.—Mr. Robert Chambers, in a curious and interesting chapter in the Edinburgh Journal, entitled "Distant Ages connected by individuals," states (in 1847): "There is living, in the vicinity of Aberdeen, a gentleman who can boast personal acquaintance with an individual who had seen and conversed with another who certainly had been present at the battle of Flodden Field." Marvellous as this may appear, it is not the less true. The gentleman to whom allusion is made was personally acquainted with the celebrated Peter Garden, of Auchterless, who died in 1775, at the reputed age of 131, although there is reason to believe that he was several years older. Peter, in his young days, was a servant to Garden of Troup, whom he accompanied on a journey to the North of England, when he saw and conversed with the famous Henry Jenkins, who died in 1670, at the age of 169. Jenkins was born in 1501, and was, of course, twelve years old at the period of the battle of Flodden Field; and on that memorable occasion he bore arms to an English nobleman, whom he served in the capacity of page. "When we think of such things," adds Mr. Chambers, "the ordinary laws of nature seem to have undergone some partial relaxation, and the dust of ancient times almost becomes living flesh before our eyes."

THE TELEGRAPH MARCHING WESTWARD.—A dispatch from St. Joseph, June 23d, in the Missouri Republican, says that the Missouri and Western Telegraph Company commenced setting poles for their line to Fort Kearney on Tuesday last, and are putting up, on an average, three miles per day. The poles are all delivered as far as Nebraska City. From there, the route to be followed is not yet decided on. Three agents have been sent on to explore the various routes to Fort Kearney. Their reports will be in within three weeks, when the most favorable route will be selected, and the line will be pushed forward rapidly enough to finish to Fort Kearney, three hundred miles west of St. Joseph, this fall. There, it will meet the Pony Express nearly a day and a half from here, and cut down the time to California to about six days.

A YANKEE'S DAMAGES.—A railroad accident took place some time ago in Maine, upon which occasion the attorney of the road visited the scene of disaster, to satisfy the claims of the injured parties. After paying for black eyes, bloody noses and cracked crowns all round, at the appraisal of the injured, he supposed his business over, when he was saluted by a tall Yankee, with feet like snow shoes, a bell-crowned hat, and a blue coat over his arm, with—
"Well, Squire, what are you going to allow me?"
"You?" said the attorney, "where are you hurt?"
"Oh, nowhere to speak of, Squire, but I was most terribly scared, and I think that's worth about a dollar, the way you've been payin' on 'em." The dollar came, of course.

Rowland Hill once said, on seeing some persons enter his chapel to avoid the rain that was falling:
"Many persons are to be blamed for making their religion a cloak; but I do not think much better of those who make their religion an umbrella."

Saturday Morning, August 11, 1860.

Nomination Day at Esquimalt.

Yesterday was quite a lively day at Esquimalt. Early in the morning, the Oregon arrived and took her departure; and immediately after Sheriff Naylor held his court for the nomination of a fit person to represent Esquimalt Town in the present Assembly. A few Obstructives appeared on the ground, and a strong guard, composed of the veterans of the Reform party, surrounded the hustings. When the Sheriff announced himself ready to receive the nominations, Robert Burnaby, Esq., came forward and moved that Capt. Gordon be a candidate. The nomination he somewhat fluently supported by an eulogy on his candidate, which was very tamely received, none but a few office-holders or office-seekers applauding. H. P. Pollew Crease, Esq., then seconded the nomination. He also saw extraordinary merits in Mr. Gordon, although no one else, perhaps, but an astute legal gentleman could. He objected to Mr. De Cosmos, because he was an editor of a newspaper, and stated that editors should not sit in the Assembly. Fine liberal is he not?

James Yates, Esq., then moved that William Alexander Smith, commonly known as Amor de Cosmos, be a candidate to represent Esquimalt. Mr. Yates stated he had known Mr. De Cosmos for over two years, and during that time he gave him every cause to believe him a thoroughly honest man; and one who would do more good for the country than any one either in the Assembly or out of it. J. D. Carroll, Esq., then seconded the nomination, supporting it with a few brief remarks.

Mr. Gordon then appeared at the hustings to give an account of his stewardship, and show cause why he should be re-elected. He stated, however, that he was not a candidate. It amounted simply to assertions without facts. When he referred to his efforts in behalf of Esquimalt road, on being cross-questioned by Mr. Waddington, it turned out that nearly all the money subscribed for the Esquimalt turnpike was subscribed by members of the Reform party—Messrs. Waddington and Young heading the list with $500 each—whilst a mere trifle was subscribed by the Obstructives, and nothing by Mr. Gordon. So the road crochets was used up. He referred to the liberal system for raising the revenue to support Mr. Gordon and the government. But when an explanation about the £20,000 loan was named he floundered out an unintelligible something that convinced all unbiassed persons that the loan was merely an election sell. The deception, however, was so apparent, that the Obstructive candidate suffered the mortification of being unable to convince his former constituents. Then he wound up by a personal attack on the Editor of the Colonist, for publishing certain strictures against him.

Mr. De Cosmos then mounted the hustings and made some remarks, showing that he had his name changed owing to the great difficulty in getting his letters. He also read a letter showing conclusively that he was not a citizen of the United States, as the Obstructives had falsely stated. He passed some biting strictures on Mr. Burnaby for his dubious political manoeuvres. Then dressed down Mr. Crease for professing to be a Reformer, and now coming forward to support Mr. Gordon, a clear-grit Obstructive. He explained that if elected he would use every means to put the present road to Esquimalt in a firstrate condition before winter sets in. In reference to the general interests of the colony, he pledged himself to support those political measures and doctrines which he had advocated during the past two years. His remarks were well received by the majority present, who greeted his retirement from the stand by three cheers.

The Sheriff then called for a show of hands for the candidates. For Mr. Gordon two or three hands were held up. On calling for a show of hands for Mr. De Cosmos nearly all present held up their hands. He then declared Mr. De Cosmos duly elected by a show of hands. Mr. Crease then demanded a poll for Mr. Gordon, and the Sheriff announced that a poll would be opened at eight o'clock this morning.

A vote of thanks was then tendered the Sheriff and the electors dispersed.

On the whole, the result was a moral victory over the Obstructives, and a practical demonstration of the repugnance of the electors for Mr. Gordon.

Reformers, Rally!

We hope Reformers will devote this day to advance Reform principles. Before eight o'clock there should be a strong rally around the polls at Esquimalt. Our cause is sacred, and on our exertions to-day will depend whether an Obstructive shall be defeated, or the Liberal candidate returned. Every exertion will be made; nothing, no matter how iniquitous, will stop the Obstructives in trying to elect their candidate. On the close of the poll to-day, it will be discovered whether we are to be ruled for another year by an Obstructive and illiberal government, or whether a new era will be inaugurated, and Reform principles be the guiding star of this promising but misgoverned colony. Reformers, Rally! one and all.

A CASE OF CONSPIRACY.—The charge of attempted rape, preferred a short time since by a squaw against Sergeant Carey of the Police, was yesterday disposed of by a jury in the Court of Assizes, in rather a summary manner. The evidence was so contradictory in its character, and withal, came from such dubious sources, that the jury had no hesitation in returning a verdict of "not guilty," without leaving their seats. There is not the least doubt but a bitter feeling of hatred has been raised in the breasts of the Indians and the Kanakas residing on Humboldt street, against Carey because of his energy in ferreting out cases of whiskey selling to natives; and also because of his endeavoring to break up a house of ill-fame adjoining the residence of the complainant. The woman and her friends, however, do not seem to have been alone in this matter; but several white men, it is said, were interested in having Carey put out of the way. We have even heard that members of the police force were concerned in the disgraceful transaction. If there be any foundation in this report a thorough investigation should at once be made by the Police Commissioner. We hope the matter will not be allowed to rest as at present.

PETITION AGAINST A WINE DUTY.—Five of our Chinese merchants, accompanied by Geo. Peakes, Esq., waited upon Governor Murray, and presented a petition to reduce the duty on wine to $3 per case—while the article is said to be only worth $2 50. The wine is alleged to be a necessary beverage with Chinamen. His Excellency promised to give the matter an early attention. We really cannot see the propriety of a reduction. Wine is no more essential to the existence of Chinamen than brandy to that of white men. A reduction made in favor of one class, should be immediately followed by a reduction in favor of the other.

THE EXTRADITION CASE.—We have heard no more of the demand made upon our authorities by the Acting-Governor of Washington Territory for the arrest of the Indian suspected of robbing and burning the schooners Blue Wing and Helen Maria. It is desirable that a decision should be given as soon possible, in order that some understanding may be established between the two Governments, to serve as a precedent for all future cases of the kind.

A CHANCE FOR A CHARITABLE LIMB OF THE LAW.—The case of Edward Snelling, charged with having murdered James McCabe, alias Simmonds, some two weeks since, on the Saanich road, has been set for trial on Monday next, in the Court of Assizes. We learn that Snelling is very poor, and has not a sixpence with which to fee a counsel. A chance is offered for some lawyer to show his generosity by stepping forward and taking charge of his case gratuitously. Who will do it?

☞ The Port Townsend Northwest, an ever welcome exchange, has again failed to reach us this week. Will not our cotemporary see that the paper is in future left at our office regularly?

FOR THE RIVER.—The Wilson G. Hunt left last evening for Fraser River, having on board about 70 tons of freight, 80 passengers and some live stock.

AUCTION.—Special sale of butter by auction this morning, by J. A. McCrea.

☞ According to Edward Everett, the use of alcoholic beverages costs the United States directly, in ten years, $120,000,000; has burnt or otherwise destroyed $5,000,000 worth of property; destroyed 300,000 lives; sent 250,000 to prison, and 100,000 children to the poor house; caused 15,000 murders and 5,000 suicides; and bequeathed to the country 1,000,000 orphan children.

Letter from "Pause Awhile."

EDITOR BRITISH COLONIST:—I see a letter in the Victoria Gazette of the 27th ult., alluding to some remarks which appeared in your paper signed "One and All," "Veritas" travelled from Yale in a wonderfully short time! The heavy charge which "Veritas" makes on that letter is easily met. The signature had no reference to Hope or Yale in a political sense. It was the conclusion of a sentence which was inadvertently omitted.

If "Veritas" and his friends wish to take the lead in passing votes of confidence in Governor Douglas officially and publicly, they are welcome to a distinction, which will not be emulated, I presume, universally until there are good grounds for doing so. Opinions and acts extending over a public administration of two years, may take a turn for the better, but no sensible man will pledge himself and others to abandoned faith after an hours' conference, or allow himself to be bewitched by the first turn of fortune.

The feelings of independent men dictate cordial thanks for rights and dues immediately and graciously accorded, or truthfully denied and postponed; and those who take self interested views simply, are loud in remonstrances when exacting burdens are laid on, but should the wind change are ready to be subscribed "your most obedient servants."

The policy of "hot and cold" is not advantageous either publicly or privately, and need not be imported from the Emerald Isle. Full credit is given to His Excellency for practical exhibition of interest in road works of immense import; let a few months pass over, and our sense of respect and gratitude for obtaining what is only due, may not diminish. These compliments, if not deemed sarcastic from past reminiscences, might be indulged in. My remarks on the Similkameen, did not aim at any suppression of the truth.

The exploring expedition was delayed from day to day. I was not aware it had left Hope, but I am very much obliged to "Veritas" for correcting the omission. I am not a regular correspondent of your paper, nor did I undertake to state every item of intelligence when alluding to a few passing events. "Veritas" states that attempts are made at Hope to create dissatisfaction. Any person desires to raise dissatisfaction at Hope with reference to a thorough British rule and administration of justice, i. e. a healthy state of the body corporate would be unsuccessful, for British subjects are numerous and well informed on the point; that perfect satisfaction with an irresponsible government is felt anywhere, must rest on the word of "Veritas."

I am, sir, yours, etc.,

THE "VERY LATEST" TO BE HAD AT THE BAR.

To the Electors of Esquimalt

GENTLEMEN—As an Election will shortly take place in your District for a Member to serve in the present Assembly. I now—in answer to pressing solicitations—have the honor to come forward as a Candidate, to ask your suffrages. On all public questions affecting the general interests of the Colony, my opinions are too well known to need recapitulation. As regards your local interests, I shall be most happy to serve you faithfully to the best of my ability. With your co-operation, should I be returned, I believe that the road connecting Esquimalt with Victoria may be placed in firstrate condition before winter sets in. To accomplish that object, whether returned or not, I shall devote unremitting attention. My past public conduct is the best guarantee that I shall faithfully fulfill the fulfilment of my pledges, and the true friend of the Colony. I need scarcely say that if elected, I shall be found the true friend of Progress and Reform. I have the honor to be, gentlemen, AMOR DE COSMOS.

Court of Assizes.

FRIDAY, August 10, 1860.

The Court met at half-past 10 o'clock. His Honor, Chief Justice Cameron, presiding. The following persons were sworn in as a grand jury for the term:

A. C. Anderson, A. H. Guild, Thos. Harris, G. H. King, J. G. Norris, Thos. Patrick, C. W. Wallace, Chas. Pritchard, T. N. Hibben, M. C. Monsarrat, E. H. Jackson, F. Peakes, F. De St. Ours, Wm. Walls, Robt. Homfray, N. Moore, James Webster, T. J. Skinner, Foreman.

His Honor addressed the grand jury in a brief manner; instructing them as to the nature of their duties, etc.

FOREIGNERS ON JURIES.

Mr. Wm. Pickett, merchant of Wharf street, asked to be excused from serving as a grand juror, on account of being a foreigner.

The Attorney General replied, that owing to the small population, the Crown was compelled to call upon foreigners to serve as jurymen. Mr. Pickett was excused, however, and the jury retired to deliberate.

THE CASE OF POLICEMAN JONES.

The Attorney General—Your Lordship, in the case of Regina vs. Jones, I find that all the witnesses, as usual, have disappeared, and the principal witness was not even bound over to appear.

Mr. Ring moved that Jones be discharged from custody.

The Attorney General had no objection to his being discharged; but his honor said he should retain him in custody until the close of the session, as the court had reason to believe that the principal witness would be forthcoming; at all events, time must be taken to see.

[Jones, it will be remembered, was a policeman of Victoria and was arrested some time since, on a charge of robbing one Darch of $153.]

MURDER CASE.

The grand jury, through T. J. Skinner, Esq., the foreman, returned an indictment in a few moments, against a Songish Indian named Gah-quail, for the murder of Yah-qu-mah, a Fort Rupert chief, on the morning of the 7th of July last. Mr. Ring appeared for the prisoner; and the Attorney General for the prosecution. A jury was impaneled with Wm. Leigh, Esq., as foreman.

Sah-bos-sah, a Cowichan, was sworn through J. W. McNeil, interpreter. He testified to seeing a Songish Indian named Slok-hol, stab the Fort Rupert chief while the prisoner held the latter's arms, and prevented him offering any resistance.

Dr. Dickson testified that he had examined the wounds received by deceased; he was stabbed all over; some forty or fifty knife-wounds were on his body; first saw him lying on the ground near the Songish lodges, with his bowels cut out.

Otto Weihe, sergeant of police, sworn:—Acted as interpreter in the case of the prisoner, when he was examined before Judge Pemberton; he made a statement of the affair; he was not pressed to make answers; spoke to him in Chinook; when he alighted "his mark" to the statement, he took hold of the top of the pen.

The witness was subjected to a rigid cross-examination by the counsel for defence in regard to the manner of making the statement.

Mr. Ring finally objected to the statement being read as evidence, and said he had no doubt the prisoner had been misled into making it.

The objection was overruled, and the statement read.

No evidence was called for the defence. Mr. Ring addressed the jury for the defence, and the Attorney General for the prosecution. After a brief charge from the Judge, the case was given to the jury, who returned after an absence of about an hour and a half with a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree, with a very strong recommendation to mercy.

ATTEMPT AT MURDER.

The case of R. X. Lewis, charged with shooting an Indian named "Johnson," some time since, was called on.

Messrs. Ring and McCreight, counsel for the defence, applied for a postponement of the case until Monday, but the Attorney-General opposed the application, on the ground that he was fearful the witnesses might be induced to leave.

The defence urged that there were two witnesses whose attendance it was necessary for them to procure before proceeding with the case.

His Honor decided to postpone the case until Monday next.

REGINA VS. CARNEY.

The case of Edward Carney, indicted for assaulting John Sullivan with intent to commit bodily injury, was called on; but the witnesses for the prosecution not being present, was postponed till end of term.

ATTEMPTED RAPE.

Joseph W. Carey, a sergeant of the Victoria police force, was arraigned on an indictment charging him with having attempted to ravish the person of an Indian squaw (!) named Kate-kah.

Attorney-General Cary opened the case for the prosecution in a few brief remarks, and called the principal witness to the stand.

Kate-kah, a squaw, sworn—Remembered Carey coming to her house one Sunday; he took her man to jail; Carey came back afterwards, and put two women out of the house; after the women had been driven away, he shut the door and made certain proposals to me; he offered to take my husband out of jail if I consented; while Carey was speaking to me, a woman came to the window; Carey took up a stick and told her to go away; he then pushed me down; I said, "Did your master tell you to do this?" I resisted all I could; I did not cry out. There are people living near my house. There was a broken window in my room through which the woman looked; I was very angry with Carey for taking my husband to jail. About one hour after my husband had been put in jail, I went and saw him. I told my husband that the policeman had made proposals to me about a day after. No other visitors had ever taken similar liberties with me; people visit my house; nothing improper goes on there; no white man has talked to me since. I made my complaint about this case; no one told me to have a letter written to Mr. Pemberton; the Indians don't like Carey; all policemen are good but Carey; told my husband of the assault but he did not say anything; knew what Carey wanted when he ordered the two women out. I didn't tell them to stay. Spoke to a white man about the affair before it came before Judge Pemberton; don't know who he is; spoke to some colored persons.

The woman's evidence was very contradictory all through. Several other witnesses were called on the part of the prosecution; but their evidence was of the most contradictory character, and awoke grave suspicions of a conspiracy in the minds of all present.

Mr. Ring opened the case for the defence, and alluded to the manner in which the evidence for the prosecution had been given.

He claimed that it was a conspiracy gotten up by certain parties, on account of Carey's activity as an officer in breaking up houses of ill-fame and in preventing the sale of liquor to Indians.

Mr. McCauley—sworn for the defence—Have had a conversation with Kate-kah about this case; she told me Carey did not throw her on the bed; met her near the Company's store; asked her about this affair; she told that Carey had pushed her and she had pushed him towards the door; she was "down on Carey" she said, because he had arrested her husband for selling liquor; she said Carey had asked favors of her, but he had pushed her only a little and she had pushed him out of the door.

To a Juror—She did not tell me that Carey returned again after having been pushed out.

Officer Andrews, sworn—Remember the squaw's husband being arrested for selling liquor; went on duty with Cary that day at 12 o'clock; saw him bring in the prisoner in the course of the afternoon; he said it was Kate-kah's husband; knew Kate-kah from the fact that a complaint had been made against her husband for beating her a few days before; he might have gone back to the squaw's house without my knowledge; did not see him for three-fourths of an hour after he took the prisoner in.

Wm. Burns, a Kanaka, sworn—Was woke up one night by one Nahor to write a letter to Judge Pemberton, telling him of this affair, [letter produced and read]; have had a conversation with the lady since the complaint was made; knew a man named Davison had had a talk with Nahor.

Mr. Cary did not understand how it was that the affair was allowed to slumber for a fortnight, and was then brought to light through the exertions of Wm. Burns and one Nahor; but the discrepancy in the evidence is not important—it only raises the question whether the accused had or had not a stick in his hand when the woman came to the window; if you consider the lapse of time before the complaint, and the feelings towards Carey, the affair is suspicious; but the simple question is, do you believe the simple evidence of the three Indian women? If you do, you must find a verdict of guilty. The whole case hinges on their evidence.

The case was given to the jury after a few remarks from His Honor; and that body, after consulting together about one moment, returned a verdict of "Not Guilty," without leaving their seats. The spectators, of which there were a large number present, fairly shook the building with their applause, and many pressed forward and congratulated Carey (who seemed much affected), upon his acquittal. Judge Cameron informed Carey that he left the court room without a stain upon his character, and he departed for his home, surrounded by numerous friends.

The Court was adjourned to to-morrow (Saturday) morning, at 10 o'clock.

The water-power for driving the machinery (which is constant) is equivalent during the dry season to twenty-horse power, and which, during the winter and spring months, may be increased to forty or fifty-horse power.

There is plenty of the finest Cedar and Pine Lumber on the Land, suitable for Spars for Shipping, or other purposes; and the Proprietor will undertake to deliver Saw Logs at the Mill in such quantity and size as may be required, and at the same rates as is paid for Saw Logs by the Lumber Mills in Puget Sound.

The site of the Mill is within a short distance by water from Victoria, and well situated for easily delivering the Sawed Lumber into the Scows for delivery in Esquimalt or Victoria Harbors, or into a wagon for delivery (by a good road) in the neighboring country district.

For further particulars, inquire at the office of Leopold Lowenberg, Real Estate Agent, No 85 Government street, opposite the Fort.

ALSO.
To Lease for a term of years, eligible Building Lots, situated in Baynes Edge, and such other suitable Terms moderate. Inquire as above. Jy28

DRUGS & MEDICINES.

DR. ADOLPHUS'
ANTI-RHEUMATIC CORDIAL
—AND—
Health Restorative
IS THE MOST VALUABLE AND UNsurpassed remedy for Rheumatism and Gout to be found in the world, or known at present.
The discoverer of the above medicine does claim its infalibility in all cases of Rheumatism and Gout—when used according to directions—and does offer a reward of five thousand dollars to any medicine that can supercede it, and is entirely vegetable. The Doctor is enabled to offer the above reward on account of his having used the above medicine for ten years in his practice, and has never known it to fail in the cure of the most protracted cases of Rheumatism and Gout, and without all known remedies to the profession.
Doctor Adolphus is known and rightly celebrated throughout the State, for his cures in Rheumatism, Gout and Chronic Diseases, and has only to be continued efforts of his patients, and through the desire to help them who are not enabled to see him personally, or to spend a fortune to get rid of the disease, which they have contracted in the pursuit of their daily calling; only this has been able to persuade the Doctor to give the above medicine to the public, and at such terms that every suffering one should be able to reap its benefits.
As a Health Restorative its value supersedes all the mineral wealth and riches of California; and is creating a revolution in the whole treatment of disease throughout the world.
In secondary and tertiary Syphilis, Scrofula, Enlargement of the Glands, Dropsy, and all Nervous and Cutaneous Diseases, and the whole train of Chronic Diseases, which withstand and baffle the skill of the most excellent and learned physician in the world; in Chronic Diseases whose very name is a terror as well to the physician as to the patient, this medicine has proved to be superior to any in existence, and has cured in so short a time that they appeared like being a magic in its influence.
Take this medicine when your urinary and absorbing organs are disordered, and it will act on your kidneys—it penetrates every part of your body, searches even the most remote and secret recesses of your system, and removes the disease lodged there—it restores healthy action and gives tone to every organ in the human body—therefore it has righteously deserved the name it bears: HEALTH RESTORA- TIVE.
The Doctor, who is averse to all patent medicines, wishes it to be understood that the above medicine is no such thing; but that he has, through the introduction of this medicine with its treaties and directions for use, made every sufferer to be his own physician in the above named diseases.
Thinking it under my dignity to follow the mode of cures, by appending certificates of physicians or private persons, which is too well known can be had for certain remunerations, applications of friends, or by the mode of boring a man half to death for even the most worthless trash, I will therefore leave it to those in want of medicine to inquire personally of men who have been cured by my medicines of the above diseases, and who can be found in almost every city and village throughout the State. I consider such personal conviction far superior to certificates of persons that are far from being known to them in want of medical aid.
But should any one care for written testimonials or certificates regarding the cures performed by this medicine, they might call at my office, and I will show them certificates of true merit, which have been sent to me voluntarily, without applying for them, or by boring individuals to get them.
To satisfy the most scrupulous of men, also as a guarantee to those that have not had the opportunity of knowing the Doctor by reputation or personally, I have added to every bottle of the Anti-Rheumatic Cordial, the certificate, under oath, of one of the most celebrated analytical chemists in the United States, that there are no minerals nor poisons contained in this medicine, although it is a very powerful medicine, and has a very strong action on the human system, which it does not possess, and have, to overcome the action of disease of such malignant character.

DR. ROSENBAUM'S CELEBRATED
STOMACH BITTERS
IS THE BEST REMEDY ever yet manufactured for the cure of all Diseases, caused by a disordered state of the Stomach and Bowels.
Dyspepsia,
Indigestion,
Constipation,
Fever and Ague.
And other similar maladies, yield at once to the beneficent influence of this excellent Medicine. Try them.
Test them on your Constitution, and go on your way rejoicing.
CAUTION.
Owing to the unexplained demand for these Bitters,
some unprincipled parties have endeavored to counterfeit them. The genuine ROSENBAUM have the name of N. B. JACOBS & CO. branded on each cork, and their signature, and have, in every bottle, a worthless article, called ROSENBAUM'S Bitters, put up in this city. Its external appearance is very much like the true Rosenbaum, but it is useless as a remedial agent, and has only been got up to prey on the reputation attained by Rosenbaum's Bitters. For sale everywhere. N. B. JACOBS & CO.,

MOSES'
HAIR INVIGORATOR.
TO PREVENT BALDNESS, RESTORE Hair that has fallen off or become thin, and to cure effectually Scurf or Dandruff.
Prepared only by W. D. MOSES.
FOR THE TOILET.
This Invigorator is most particularly for Ladies after illness, to be used with the Oil prepared by the proprietor. First saturate the head with the invigorator; rub well with a hair-brush; then oil. It will also relieve the hair, when moist with it, can be dressed in any required form so as to preserve its place, whether plain or in curls. When used on children's heads, it lays the foundation for a good head
of hair.
Ladies will find the Invigorator a great addition to the toilet, both in consideration of its delicate and agreeable perfume and the great facility it affords in dressing the hair, which, when moist with it, can be dressed in any required form so as to preserve its place, whether plain or in curls. When used on children's heads, it lays the foundation for a good head
of hair.
